— Rev. Ernest Obeng Manful

Samuel Awuku-Gyekye; Regional Overseers present; Pastors; the Member of Parliament for Awutu Senya East, Hon. Phylis Naa Koryo Okunor; the Municipal Chief Executive, Hon. Kasoa District; and everyone present here this evening — I bring you warm greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, in this Jesus Year.

A Heart of Gratitude

With hearts full of gratitude and appreciation to God, I warmly welcome you all to the 25th Anniversary Thanksgiving and Dedication Service of ICGC Transformation Temple, Kasoa.

This is indeed the day the Lord has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Our Journey So Far

Looking back on where we have come from as a church, we can confidently affirm the words of Zechariah 4:6:

“So he answered and said to me: ‘This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ says the LORD of hosts.”

If it had been by our own might or power, we would not be here today celebrating this milestone.

Just as the Lord instructed Israel to celebrate the Feast of Passover to remember His deliverance, today we celebrate God's faithfulness and the many blessings He has bestowed upon us — both as individuals and as a church.

Over the past 25 years, this temple has truly been a house of prayer, evidenced by inspiring testimonies that affirm its name — Transformation Temple — where lives are continually transformed.

A New Wind Blowing

As we dedicate this temple tonight, I am certain in my spirit that there is a new wind blowing - a wind of revival, a wind of renewal of minds and spirits, and a wind of elevation - that will change the narrative of Christianity in Kasoa and beyond.

Our Father's Blessing

We are greatly privileged to have our Father and General Overseer bless us this evening. Sir, we at ICGC Transformation Temple and the Kasoa District continually thank God for giving you to us as a gift to our generation.

Your teaching and leadership continue to shape our lives.

Messages such as Generational Thinkers, Go Borrow Vessels, The Dominion Mandate, and other thought-provoking and soul-searching sermons have illuminated our paths on this Christian journey.

Appreciation to the Church Family

To the Church Council, leadership, and entire membership of ICGC Transformation Temple, I express my heartfelt appreciation for your unwavering support throughout this journey.

Your prayers, counsel, sacrifices, and commitment have been invaluable.

As we forge ahead, it is my prayer that we will come to a deeper understanding of Christ and grow continually in our walk with Him.

May we experience unusual blessings, and above all, may the presence of God continue to dwell richly in this place.

Appreciation to My Family

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to my dear wife, Mrs. Hilda Obeng-Manful. You have been a strong pillar of support and encouragement throughout this journey.

To my children, I say thank you for your patience and understanding amid my many busy schedules.

Finally, I extend my sincere appreciation to my extended family for their prayers, love, and unwavering support on this journey of ministry.

*To God Alone Be All the Glory.
Amen*

History of

INTERNATIONAL CENTRAL GOSPEL CHURCH (ICGC)

- TRANSFORMATION TEMPLE, KASOA

A Journey of Faith, Growth, and Transformation (2000 – 2025)

Our Identity and Mission

ICGC Transformation Temple, Kasoa, is a branch of the International Central Gospel Church (ICGC) — a global movement that God is using to draw people to Himself and to establish His divine purposes for humanity.

Our vision, like every ICGC assembly, is to establish the house of God through the development of Model New Testament Christians and Churches.

Our mission is to raise leaders, shape visions, and influence society through Christ — guided by the philosophy of Practical Christianity, Human Dignity, and Excellence.

The Beginning of a Journey (Year 2000)

ICGC Transformation Temple, formerly known as Love Assembly, was established in the year 2000 when Rev. Ernest Obeng-Manful was commissioned to start a church in Kasoa.

Although there were other ICGC assemblies along the road leading to Kasoa, Transformation Temple became the first ICGC church to be planted in mainland Kasoa — at a time when development in the area extended only a few metres beyond the old market.

The church's first congregational service, a prayer meeting to lay a spiritual foundation, was held on Sunday, October 15, 2000. Since that day, the church has never looked back, moving forward in strength, grace, favour, and number despite many challenges along the way.

Growth and Expansion

Within just four years, the church's membership grew to about 250 adults in regular attendance.

The remarkable growth highlighted the need for a larger auditorium, and in 2006, the church relocated to its current worship centre, situated approximately 200 metres from the original site.

Over the years, by the mercies of God, the church has continued to grow from strength to strength — numerically, spiritually, and in impact. Out of this seed planted twenty-five years ago, several other ICGC assemblies have been birthed.

To the glory of God, Kasoa has now become a full-fledged district within ICGC's administrative structure.

The foundation of intense prayer and sound teaching of God's Word has been the bedrock of this growth — with countless testimonies to confirm God's faithfulness.

Impact and Community Transformation

1. Physical Transformation of the Area
When the church acquired its current site, the land and surrounding area were swampy and inaccessible.

Through dedicated construction efforts, the church transformed the landscape, making it motorable and attractive for settlement.

This single initiative contributed significantly to the rapid development of the locality.

2. A Place of Refuge During Floods
The church has continually served as a safe haven for community members during periods of heavy flooding, including the recent floods in June and July of this year, providing shelter, care, and comfort to those affected.
3. Transformed Youth Development Centre (TYDC)
In 2007, through a partnership with Compassion International, the Transformed Youth Development Centre (TYDC) was established.

This ministry has supported over 400 young people and their families, meeting their academic, social, and spiritual needs.

The program has successfully seen more than 200 graduates complete various tertiary and vocational training programs, transforming lives and shaping destinies.

4. Central Gospel Schools – Kasoa (CGS)

In 2011, the vision to raise leaders and influence society took a new form with the establishment of Central Gospel Schools (CGS – Kasoa) through the passion and leadership of Rev. Ernest Obeng-Manful.

Since its inception, the school has trained and impacted hundreds of children, equipping them with sound academic and moral foundations for life.

Acknowledgements and Special Appreciation

The success story of ICGC Transformation Temple has been made possible by the commitment and sacrifices of many valiant people.

Special appreciation goes to Rev. Rosabella Mensa, the then Resident Pastor of ICGC Galilea in the year 2000, whose wise counsel to a young minister, Rev. Ernest Obeng-Manful, will never be forgotten.

We also wish to acknowledge Mr. and Mrs. Asemani for graciously providing a place of worship until the church secured its permanent site.

Our sincere gratitude also goes to Rev. Morris Appiah, Rev. Samuel Awuku-Gyekye, Rev. Edwin Donkor, Rev. Anthony Cudjoe, Prophet Daniel Awusanya, and many others for their support, counsel, and direction throughout the years.

We also acknowledge Lady Hilda Obeng-Manful for being a strong pillar beside Rev. Obeng-Manful, offering unwavering support and dedication to the ministry.

In Loving Memory

We honour the memory of the late Mr. Israel Dankwa for his dedication to service, the late Deacon Asiedu-Siaw, who played a key role in the construction of the church and establishment of the school, and the late Deacon Charles R. A. Quaye for his unfailing love for the things of God.

May their souls find eternal rest in the Lord.

To God Be the Glory

Everything that God has done for and through this church is a testament to His grace and unwavering love. We count ourselves privileged to be beneficiaries of His goodness and vessels in His hands.

We will continue to pray that God will use ICGC Transformation Temple, Kasoa, as a beacon of light, touching lives and pointing people to Christ.

God bless us all.

HYMNS

HEAD OF THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT

1. Head of Thy Church triumphant,
We joyfully adore Thee;
Till Thou appear, Thy members here
Shall sing like those in glory.
We lift our hearts and voices
With blest anticipation,
And cry aloud, and give to God
The praise of our salvation.

2. The name we shall acknowledge that burst our bonds in sunder, and loudly sing our conquering king, in songs of joy and wonder. In every day deliverance our Jesus we discover; 'Tis He, 'Tis He that smote the sea and led us safely over!

3. While in affliction's furnace,
And passing through the fire,
Thy love we praise, which knows our days,
And ever brings us nigher.
We clap our hands exulting
In Thine almighty favor;
The love divine which made us Thine
Shall keep us Thine for ever.

4. By faith we see the glory
To which Thou shalt restore us,
The cross despise for that high prize
Which Thou hast set before us.
And if Thou count us worthy,
We each, as dying Stephen,
Shall see Thee stand at God's right hand,
To take us up to Heaven

JESUS SHALL REIGN

1. JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Doth his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

2. For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

3. People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their young hosannas to His Name.

4. Blessings abound wherever He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to lose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest;
And all the sons of want are blest.

5. Where He displays His healing power,
Death and the curse are known no more;
In Him the tribes of Adam boast
More blessings than their father lost.

6. Let every creature rise, and bring
Its grateful honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth prolong the joyful strain. Amen.

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD

1. Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers arms
has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
of this world in the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given,
the Son and Spirit blest,
who reign in highest heaven
the one eternal God,
whom heaven and earth adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and still with us today

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

1. TO God be the glory! great things He hath done!
So loved He the world that He gave us
His Son;
Who yielded His life an atonement for sin,
And opened the Life gate that all may go in.

Praise th'e Lord!
praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear His voice
Praise the Lord
I praise the Lord!
Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father, through Jesus the Son:
And give Him the glory
for the great things He hath done!

2. O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood!
To every believer the promise of God;
The vilest offender who truly be lieves,
That moment from Jesus a pardon receives.

3. Great things He hath taught us, great things
He hath done, And great our rejoicing
through Jesus the Son;
But purer, and higher, and greater will be
Our wonder, our rapture,
when Jesus we see.
